

A Snapshot of Agency Instructor Certification

Having certified in-house instructors allows your agency to conduct essential training on-site at your agency, leading to significant savings in both training and travel expenses.

What agency instructor courses are available?

Public Safety Telecommunicator 1

Communications Training Officer

Fire Service Communications

Emergency Medical Dispatch

Law Enforcement Communications

PREREQUISITE

You must have successfully completed the student course in your chosen discipline.

What Are the Benefits of Agency Instruction?

Cost Efficiency

Reduce expenses related to external training and travel.

Customized Training

Tailor courses to meet your agency's specific needs.

Flexible Scheduling

Conduct training sessions that fit your agency's timetable.

UPGRADING INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATION

Instructors who are already certified in one discipline can expand their expertise by obtaining certification in additional areas. Any current APCO Instructor that holds current student discipline certificates for PST 1, FSC 3, CTO 6, LEC, and EMD (if applicable) may submit the upgrade application.
